

THERE is but one way in the world to be sure of having the best paint, and that is to use only a well-established brand of strictly pure white lead, pure linseed oil, and pure colors.* The "John T. Lewis & Bros." brand is standard "Old Dutch" process, and is always absolutely Strictly Pure White Lead

* If you want colored paint, tint this strictly pure lead with National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of Strictly Pure White Lead the desired shade; they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the handiest form to tint Strictly Pure White Lead.

A GOVERNOR IN DANGER.
Georgia's Chief Magistrate May Die from an Attack of Appendicitis.
ATLANTA, June 18.—Apprehensions of a fatal outcome of an attack of appendicitis with which Governor Atkinson was seized on Sunday, though removed for a time yesterday, were renewed last night, and grave fears are now entertained that death may ensue. The governor rested in comparative comfort in the afternoon, but at night his condition became rapidly worse. A lawyer was summoned and the governor made his will. An operation was performed on the patient, but the result is as yet unknown.

RELIEVED OF HIS COMMAND.
Commander Ide Leaves the Alert for Disrespect to Admiral Meade.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Commander George Ide, of the Alert, now at Panama, has been relieved of his command by a cable order. He will be succeeded by Commander Franklin Hanford, at present on duty at the New York navy yard, who will take the steamer on July 30 for the isthmus. Commander Ide, however, will be relieved immediately, not being allowed to retain his command until his successor reaches his ship. The reason for this summary action is found in charges preferred by Rear Admiral Meade that the commander had treated him with disrespect.

The incident occurred at Panama last spring. Admiral Meade and Assistant Secretary McCadoe, while cruising in the Carribbean sea, had touched at Colon, and the two officials crossed the isthmus to Panama on the railroad. Here they met Commander Ide, and it was during this meeting that the incident occurred that led the admiral to prefer charges against the commander. The department acted deliberately in the matter, making a careful investigation into the case, and finally sending copies of the charges by mail to Commander Ide to afford him an opportunity to defend himself. Apparently his answer was not satisfactory, as his removal from his command followed. Commander Ide will go on waiting orders for an indefinite period of time.

Big Postoffice Robbery at Montgomery.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 18.—A big postoffice robbery has just come to light here. Josiah Morris & Co., bankers, sent on Saturday a $100,000 package to a New York bank. A postal agent came and received the Montgomery postoffice for the money package. Shortly afterwards the mail pouch was found cut open. Postmaster Scrows telegraphed Inspector Barrett at Chattanooga to come immediately and investigate the matter. Charles Armstrong, a postoffice employe, returned the package on Sunday, claiming he had found it in the street. Armstrong was arrested yesterday.

Terrible Collision Averted.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 18.—Yesterday a heavily loaded coal car broke loose from its fastenings at the Franklin mine and dashed down the mountain. When it reached the main track of the Central Railroad of New Jersey it had gained a speed of a mile a minute. A passenger train from Scranton was expected soon, and word was sent ahead to clear the track. The operator at the Jersey Central office ordered a switching engine to be run out on the main track. The runaway car was met and halted, but the engine was smashed into old iron.

Town Threatened by Forest Fires.
BRADFORD, Pa., June 18.—A terrible forest fire is raging in the Kinross valley. A telephone message from Mount Jewett stated that a special train had just left that place for Kusbegua with 100 men. About 400 men are throwing up embankments and making every effort to save the town. The fire is advancing toward the village and nothing, it seems, can be done to stop its progress. Gaffney's chemical factory is in the direct course of the great sea of flames and its destruction is almost inevitable.

Portugal's Capitol Partially Destroyed.
LISBON, June 18.—The chamber of deputies was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Flames broke out on the roof at 1 o'clock, the fire being caused by a plumber who had been at work there. The man left his work for some time, neglecting to extinguish his brazier. The flames were under control before the fire could spread to the chamber of peers, but the chamber of deputies and the archives were destroyed. Four persons were injured during the conflagration.

Another Exploding Boiler.
ATTICA, Ind., June 18.—While workmen were driving a well with a steam drill the boiler exploded. William Smith was instantly killed and Frank Peterson died within twenty minutes. Leonard Stambard was horribly scalded and will hardly recover. J. W. Hamer, Alex. Hamer, Henry Stumar and a younger son of J. H. Hamer were all more or less scalded and otherwise injured.

A Setback for Street Railway Companies.
TRENTON, June 18.—The court of errors and appeals decided a number of cases which were brought to assail the legality of the franchises obtained by the Camden Horse Railroad company and the West Jersey Traction company, in Stockton township. The effect of the opinions is a setback for both companies.

New Pennsylvania Judges.
HARRISBURG, June 18.—Governor Hastings has appointed John W. Reed, of Brookville, president judge of Jefferson county, and Alexander D. McConnell, of Greensburg, additional judge of Westmoreland county, to serve until January 1, 1899. Both offices were created by the new judicial apportionment bill.

THE HONEST SHAKERS AND THEIR CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

The shopkeeper who cheats us by lying with regard to the quality of his goods, and the grocer and the butcher who gives us short weights, is a thief. However, their knavery touches nothing but our pocketbook. There is another widespread form of misrepresentation of a far more dangerous and villainous character.

We refer to the false statements and worthless guarantees that frequently accompany medicines. To guarantee a medicine to cure is to brand it as a quack product. If we can guarantee a quack disease, then we can guarantee everlasting life, for in a large majority of cases people die of disease, the proportion of violent or accidental deaths being very small.

The Shakers have always been known as a most upright and honorable people, and their success in the manufacture of medicines has always been well known. It is therefore not surprising to find them pursuing a very original and novel plan for the introduction of their remedy for dyspepsia.

These God-fearing people, whose motto has always been "Try all things and hold fast to that which is good," have put upon the market ten cent sample bottles of their product, or sufficient to give a trial. The Shaker Digestive Cordial is so prompt in its action that for the trivial sum of ten cents a person can usually determine as to whether or not it meets the requirements of his case. There are forms of dyspepsia which it won't help, but these are very rare. In most cases the first dose relieves all distress, and an increase of appetite at once follows.

All druggists have it, and the next time you are troubled with indigestion send out and try this popular and successful product. It represents nearly a hundred years of patient investigation and study.

MARRIAGE OF THE WATERS.

The Harlem Ship Canal Opened with Elaborate Ceremonial.
NEW YORK, June 18.—The Harlem ship canal, which connects the Hudson river with Long Island sound, was formally opened yesterday afternoon with a monster aquatic and land parade, in which the United States army and navy, the state militia and naval reserve, the city police and fire departments and numerous civic bodies were represented. The parade was watched by 50,000 or more people stationed along the line of march and on the banks of the canal.

The water pageant was the feature of the demonstration. At 12 o'clock one of the big guns of the warship Cincinnati boomed out the signal for the divisions of the flotilla to take place in line. The head of the column formed about 300 yards from shore.

When the battery of the Cincinnati gave the opening salute of six guns there was a rattling of chains at the railroad crossing at the entrance of the canal. All the vessels in the first division were in line, and amid the screaming of whistles from the whole fleet, and while the Cincinnati's guns were still booming, the tug Scandinavian, which led the procession, swept through the opening, closely followed by half a dozen little steam launches, which came up in double file and shot ahead.

Then came a score or more of barges, tugs and excursion steamers. The flagship Elaine, with the invited guests, led the second division of the parade, and there was another blast from the whistles as she went through the draw. Following her were a score or more of tug boats, most of which had been chartered for the occasion by various organizations. Last of the seventy vessels in the flotilla. The rowing clubs fell in behind the Scandinavian in the first division and went down the river four abreast. Passing through the Harlem river the water parade made its way to the rendezvous just off Oak Point. There the land forces drew up and the salute from the Cincinnati was answered by a salute on land and the cheers of the multitude of people gathered in the woods along East Harbor at Oak Point.

It was here that the members of the Young Lady Naval guards with much ceremony placed their hands on the kegs carried by the Elaine, containing the waters from historical spots, while the waters were tumbled into the sound and the words of the marriage of the waters were spoken.

Charged with Forging a Fair Will.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—James Haskins died in August, 1894, leaving a will bequeathing all his estate to his widow, Elizabeth Haskins. No opposition being made, the will was duly admitted to probate last September, when the attorneys for Charles L. Fair produced a second will of James G. Fair, dated Sept. 24, 1894, three days later than the stolen will. They stated that the millionaire had executed this will in the presence of Mrs. Nellie Craven and Mrs. Elizabeth Haskins. It is stated that Mrs. Haskins was killed in penmanship to a remarkable degree, and it is now charged that Mrs. Haskins forged the second Fair will, as also that of her husband. A contest for the Haskins estate has been commenced by her nephew.

Murder and Suicide at Trenton.
TRENTON, June 18.—Frederick C. Floyd, a farm hand, aged 40 years, whose home is at Roxbury, N. J., shot Hattie Combs, a domestic of this city, last night, fatally wounding her, after which he killed himself. The girl died at 1 o'clock this morning. Floyd met the girl in Roxbury several months ago, and fell in love with her. She did not reciprocate, but Floyd persisted in his attentions and often came to this city to visit her. He called last night and persuaded the girl to take a walk with him. When they reached the corner of Bank and Willow streets the double tragedy occurred.

Killed by Her Worthless Son-in-Law.
LANCASTER, Pa., June 18.—Joseph Westgate, an iron worker, 42 years old, shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Christina Hanbright, aged 64 years, last night. He then fired a bullet into his own head, inflicting a wound which will prove fatal. Westgate has been married to Mrs. Hanbright's daughter for six years, but when in drink he so violently abused her that four years ago, she left him and, with their two children, took up her residence with her mother.

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

Gathering for the Annual Convention at Cleveland.

THE CONTEST FOR PRESIDENT.

A Report that Stephen B. Elkins Will Oppose General McAlpin, the Choice of the New York Delegates—The Iowans Will Not Demand Free Silver.

CLEVELAND, June 18.—Many delegates and visitors have already arrived here to attend the National Republican league convention which begins tomorrow. Among those who reached the city yesterday was Secretary Humphrey, of Chicago, and President B. Tracy arrived today. The Marquette club, of Chicago, is coming on a special. Senator Warner Miller is coming with the New York delegation, and George Gunter, of the New York school of economics is coming on the New York train to answer the silverites should occasion demand it. Professor Williams, of Brown university, will also be here.

The ladies' reception committee have opened headquarters at the Hollenden, with Mrs. Catherine H. T. Avery in charge. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the Woman's Republican Association of the United States, arrived at the Hollenden this forenoon.

It is now reported that Senator-elect Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, has entered the race for president of the league, and that he will come to town with the West Virginia delegation in the hopes of winning a victory against the McAlpin forces. The New Yorkers are entrenched in their belief that their candidate cannot by any possible chance be beaten.

There is a quiet, but strong, undercurrent of sentiment favoring H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, for president of the league, and the strength which he may develop depends upon his willingness to allow his friends to formally present his name before the convention.

One of the early far western arrivals is Frank W. Blinnell, the Iowa member of the National league. Mr. Blinnell is the editor of the Des Moines State Register, and is in touch with the politics of his state.

"Are the people of Iowa going to demand free silver?" he was asked.

"No sir, we are going to be very conservative on that point. It is not the province of this convention to formulate or even touch upon the policy of the Republican party. We stand with Senator Allison in his speech he made at the Pittsburgh American club banquet on Grant's birthday, which is for bi-metallicism. You may safely say that the Iowa delegation will vote as a unit against any silver platform outside of the one adopted at Minneapolis."

"Will Iowa boom Allison for president of the United States?"

"We will boom him, certainly, but not this week. We believe in being courteous, and do not propose to do anything in Ohio, on Governor McKinley's own ground."

Jealousy and Murder.

SANDUSKY, O., June 18.—B. T. S. Hastings, aged 23, who recently came here from St. Louis and stayed at a resort kept by his sister, Artie Hastings, on Decatur street, shot Tricie St. Clair, an inmate, through the heart in a fit of jealousy. She died instantly. Hastings then shot himself twice in the left breast, and is now at police headquarters in a critical condition. Hastings says that he intended to kill both himself and the girl, as she had gone back on him.

Killed by an Exploding Boiler.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18.—A fatal boiler explosion occurred at the Union cotton compress works. The building was wrecked and the lessee of the press, Clem B. Primrose, was killed. Twelve others were injured, Albert Frankenhach and Preston Kaye seriously.

Oscar Wilde Must Serve His Time.

LONDON, June 18.—The attorney general has refused to grant the application of Sir Edward Clark for the release of Oscar Wilde, on the ground that the indictment under which he was tried and convicted was defective.
